

Useful Links

	Sutton local offer Sutton's Local Offer provides information on the education, health and social care support services available in the borough for children, young people and adults (aged 0-25 years old) with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND). For more information on SEND support, useful resources, events, and many more, relating to SEND in the local area, please see Sutton's Local Offer.
	SIASS SIASS provides free impartial, confidential and accurate information, advice and support about education, health and social care for children, young people and their parents/ carers.
 Department for Education	SEND Code of Practice The SEND Code of Practice is the statutory guidance for organisations which work with and support children and young people who have special educational needs or disabilities.
	IPSEA IPSEA offers free and independent legally based information, advice and support to help get the right education for children and young people with all kinds of special educational needs and disabilities (SEND).
 Department for Education	Children and Families Act A guide to the Children & Families Act (2014)
	National Autistic Society (Sutton Branch) The Sutton branch of the National Autistic Society (NAS) run entirely by unpaid volunteers, many of whom have are parents / carers of autistic children. NAS branches in England provide a local hub where parents, carers and autistic people can get help, access services, support each other and meet other people and families in similar situations.

	Sutton Carers Centre Sutton Carers Centre have groups which provide mutual peer support, information sharing and an opportunity to meet with people who may have similar experiences.
	Young Minds Young Minds offer free, confidential online and telephone support, including information and advice, to any adult worried about the emotional problems, behaviour or mental health of a child or young person up to the age of 25.
	British Dyslexia Association The BDA is the voice of dyslexic people. Our vision is that of a dyslexia friendly society that enables dyslexic people to reach their potential.
	Speech and Language UK A charity that helps children with speech and language difficulties across the UK. The charity works to create a society where their special needs are recognised, understood and met, so that they have the same opportunities in life as other children.
	National Deaf Children's Society The National Deaf Children's Society is the only UK charity solely dedicated to providing support, information and advice for deaf children and young people, their families and professionals working with them.
	Hypermobility Syndrome Association Hypermobility Syndrome Association provides specific information for children and their parents to help families who often just don't know where to turn. We run specialist family programmes, where families can learn together how best to manage the many symptoms relating to hypermobility, gain confidence and ask any questions they may have.